

FAQ Alvah N. Belding Library

LIBRARY PROGRAMS, MEETING ROOMS, AND BOOK SALES DURING COVID-19

What programs and activities do you offer for kids and adults?

We are offering a variety of VIRTUAL live or pre-recorded programs for all age groups. Virtual calendars are uploaded to our website and Facebook page weekly, and programs may be viewed on Facebook or on the library YouTube Channel. Look under the "Library Happenings" tab on our website for details of upcoming programs. "Take and Make" craft activities can be picked up weekly outside the library door at the ramp entrance.

Where can I learn about library programs?

We share information about our library programs on our website, through our main and Youth Facebook pages, through the library YouTube Channel, and our weekly library newsletter.

What reading programs does the library offer?

The library offers different types of reading challenges throughout the year. Some are ongoing, and some are seasonal. To see what reading programs are available for your age, ask a staff member, or go to the "Reading Resources" tab of our website or download the Beanstack Tracker App to see available challenges.

How can I donate books to the library?

DUE TO COVID-19 AND SAFE PUBLIC HEALTH PRECAUTIONS, WE ARE NOT ACCEPTING DONATIONS AT THIS TIME.

When is the Friends of the Library Book Sale?

DUE TO COVID-19 AND SAFE PUBLIC HEALTH PRECAUTIONS, OUR FALL BOOK SALE IS CANCELED.

Can I have a meeting at the library?

DUE TO COVID-19 AND SAFE PUBLIC HEALTH PRECAUTIONS, MEETINGS ARE NOT CURRENTLY ALLOWED.
